CONSIDERABLY MIXED. The Purported Arrest of Ray Wilson Is

Still a Mystery. Sheriff McQueen returned from Detroit last evening, where he had an imterview with Chief of Police Starkweather of that city with reference to the arrest of Ray Wilson, John P. Finegan's assailant. The sheriff learned from the chief that the man delivered at headquarters by the officers to whom printing and publication committees of the Improvement Board was held in the office of the secretary yesterday, to take the initial steps toward the publication of the book of statistics of this gave his name as George A. Martz and g his residence was in this city. Martz weighed 150 pounds, with light complexion and wore a light mustache. Wilson has no beard and weighs 180 pounds, is also taller than the man Martz. Conductor Gibbs is still certain that the man whom he gave to the officers was Wilson. The description of the man appears to have changed while going from the depot to the police station according to the stories of the conductor and the police officers. Sheriff McQueen says he will learn more about the matter in a few days as be has a description of Martz and will find him.

HE DIED UNEXPECTEDLY.

Enne Postmus' Wife Found Him Dead In Bed Yesterday Morning.

Enne Postmus, a Hollander, 42 years old, living at No. 601 North Cost avenue, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. Mrs. Postmus went to awaken her husband and found him lying on the bed with his pants on. She found that he was dead. An investigation showed that he had been lead for some time. He went home late the night previous and retired to his room, which adjoins the one occu-pied by his wife, and nothing was heard of him after he retired. The deceased was employed at Dregge's lumber yard and leaves a wife and a 12-year-old son. Coroner Penwarden turned the remains over to Undertaker Joldersma and a post mortem examination was held to determine the cause of death. It was found that he had been afflicted with pneumonia.

Proprietors of Dullam's Great German GENTLENES-I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe Liver and Stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood. Stomach and Kidneys and to my surprise after using three bottles I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan, papers, or any other papers in the papers, or any other papers in the states, to convince the afflicted that it is the best Blood, Liver and Kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man.
